

HomeFeaturesNewsShowsPodcastsLocalPoliticsBusinessLifestyleSportEntertainmentWorldAfricaOpinion

▶ Latest Local

Ukraine-Russia conflict not likely to dominate Ramaphosa-Biden talks - Expert

President Ramaphosa is expected to take his official international trip to the White House this Friday.

13 September 2022 7:19 AM

Wills Week: All you need to know about choosing the right executor

Around 70% of South Africans do not have a last will and testament, according to wills and estates specialists,

Capital Legacy.

13 September 2022 6:16 AM

New tax on tyres imported from China could spell high costs for motorists

Motorists could be in for another financial shock as a new provisional duty on tyres from China could raise prices significantly.

12 September 2022 7:15 PM

View all Local

Cape Talk's John Maytham spoke to Daily Maverick's journalist, Onke Ngcuka, about Searcher Geodata's new attempts to get permission to conduct seismic surveys . She says companies, like Searcher Geodata, always want to prioritize profits over poor communities.

Listen to the full interview below...

Breakfast with Refilwe Moloto

06:00 - 09:00